

About Us

ALVARA has redefined cash management. Our ambition is to understand the interests of all cash stakeholders in the fields of finance and trade as well as those of the cash-in-transit companies and to create interlinked solutions.

Following the motto "Your cash in clear sight.", we successfully develop and operate complete IT solutions for the cash cycle tailored to market needs.

For this purpose, we take an expansive standardized approach to fulfill the needs of our customers and the industry. Using the latest technology and in close cooperation with the customers, we incorporate current market requirements and trends in the development of our products.
